SkillsPlus—a Source You Can Trust

SkillsPlus is a program of Upjohn HealthCare Services, a national leader in home health care employing nearly 65,000 health care workers nationwide. We share the same commitment to quality service. That's why the rigid techniques used by Upjohn HealthCare Services for recruiting and matching people with jobs in the area of health care are being applied to the clerical, specialist and general labor categories. You'll find it's one more reason why you can count on SkillsPlus to send the right person the first time...and every time. We're a source you can trust.

We're here whenever you call.

We know that the need for temporary help can arise at any time, and we're ready to answer that need. For your convenience, our phone is answered 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
