attractive finish.

Dick then welded as much of the sculpture together as possible indoors. Because it's 25 feet long, 14 feet wide and seven feet tall, the sculpture had to be moved outside for final welding.

"People kid me about it," admits John. "They call it Beaton's jungle gym."

In a similar vein, Dick is hearing himself referred to as the "da Vinci of the Sheet Metal Shop."

"The whole project was challenging and a lot of fun," says Dick, a 13-year shop veteran. "It's the first sculpture I've ever made."

NEW BOOK A SMALL PRICE FOR HEALTHIER LIFE

Seminars Offered to Retiring Employees

All employees retiring in 1990 are encouraged to participate in the remaining seminars. Interested employees should call JoAnn Sibley, Corporate Ombudsman's Office, at 3-5621 to reserve space.

Another seminar, "Will

My Social Life or Relationships Change After Retirement?" will be held on March 6 in the auditorium in Building 88; also "Will I Stay Fit, Healthy and Youthful?" will be held on March 20 in the auditorium in Building 298. Both seminars are from 4:00 P.M. to 5:30 P.M.
